Newsletter for Friday 8th September

Welcome back, we hope you had a great Summer.

School lunches:

It was mentioned on the last newsletter in July, but just a reminder: You'll be aware of the rising cost of everything at the moment. Unfortunately, due to energy and supplier costs, we have raised the price of school lunches to £2.50. Milk is 22p a day for classes 2 & 3. Children in Class 1 who wish to have milk will be paid for by the school.

How to pay: 1st Half term £82.50

2nd Half term £92.50

BACS: 40 16 22 51867024 Calthwaite Church of England School

Forest School:

We are really pleased to continue forest school for another year. Classes 2 & 3 will continue to go to Laikin Wood; Class 1 will spend this term on site but will progress to the woods next year. Attached is a basic kit list from our providers aimed more for the colder months FYI.

15th September- Class 3

22nd September-Class 2

29th September-Class 1

6th October-Class 3

13th October-Class 2

20th October-Class 1

For those that attended Karate club:

Christine is taking the Autumn term off as she's globe-trotting and really busy with competitions. Karate will resume in the Spring term if there is enough interest. We'll put details out nearer the time.

Staffing:

Class 1: Mrs Lawden and Mrs Bentley

Class 2: Miss Quigley and Miss Ivinson

Class 3: Miss Boustead and Mrs Rogerson

In addition, we have Miss Slater and Mrs McCallum working across the school every morning. Mrs Bulman is our SENDco and works Mondays and Wednesdays.

P.E:

We are really pleased to have Ben continuing to deliver P.E on Wednesdays throughout the school. We also have Lucy Monk on a Thursday delivering gymnastics for every class. Hopefully, you'll agree that wheelchair basketball went down well yesterday with the children. Class 3 will have some WWII themed dance sessions with Nicola Ivinson.

Collective worships:

We are grateful to Rev. Houston who will lead worships every other Monday and to Mrs Evans who will lead NISCU worships every other Tuesday.

Inter-faith week 30th October with a Calthwaite Vision and values day included. Our Harvest service is provisionally booked for Thursday 28th September (TBC.) Class 3 will host a remembrance service on Friday 10th November.

Clubs:

Wednesdays-Rounders with Ben (Classes 2 & 3)

Tuesdays-Lego club with Mr Harvey (Classes 2 & 3)

Contact the office for a space.

Music lessons:

Mr Evans will be doing his music lessons on Tuesday afternoons.
